CALLING ALL EMPLOYERS!

Virginia Statute 63.2-1946 and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA) of 1996, 42 U.S.C. 653a, requires all Virginia employers to report all newly hired or rehired employees to the state directory within twenty (20) days of their hire or rehire date.

Employers play an essential role in helping Virginia’s children receive the support they need. Many families who do not receive financial support are often forced to depend on public assistance or live in poverty. By acting in accordance with the new hire reporting laws, you will help children receive the support they deserve. Furthermore, new hire reporting reduces fraudulent unemployment insurance and workers’ compensation claims. Ultimately, new hire reporting is an easy, yet vital process, designed to help employers have a positive impact on their communities.

REPORTING BASICS

What is new hire reporting?

All employers with business operations in the State of Virginia are required to report all newly hired or rehired employees who live or work in Virginia within twenty (20) days of the employees’ first day on the job. State and federal laws require employers to report paid individuals regardless of whether or not the individuals are considered employees by federal tax code standards.

ELECTRONIC REPORTING

Reporting new hires electronically benefits employers in a number of ways:

- Saves on paper, processing time, and postage;
- Reduces the likelihood of errors;
- Helps to avoid rejected records because of unreadable or missing information;
- Qualifies Multistate employers for “Multistate” new hire reporting; and
- Allows employers with many work sites to centralize their new hire reporting.

There are two ways employers can report electronically.

Online Reporting: Employers can use our website to report their new hires online. Confirmations of reports received are provided each time an employer reports using this feature. Visit https://va-newhire.com to register for online reporting.

Electronic Reporting: Employers can export their new hire information from their payroll or human resources software into a file that meets our layout specifications. Most software manufacturers provide technical support, and some software manufacturers have recently added electronic new hire reporting options to their latest upgrades.

MULTISTATE REPORTING

If you are an employer with employees in more than one state, you are a multistate employer. Multistate employers have two options for reporting their new hires:

Option #1 Report newly hired employees to the state in which they are working, following the new hire regulations of each state to which you will report. For more information on multistate reporting, visit https://ocsp.acf.hhs.gov/csp/msr.

Option #2 Select one state where you have employees working and report all new hires to that state electronically. Visit https://va-newhire.com for more information on electronic reporting.
